Preparing for the Constitutional Convention.

Preparatory to the actual beginning of the great constitutional convention on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, at last all arrangements are complete and nominees who will participate in the event are actively astir. The programme as arranged for the industrial parade on Thursday and the military parade on Friday, besides one for evening, to be held in Independence square on Saturday, are very elaborate, and if favorable weather should prevail a mammoth pageant will be exhibited. Carriages will be provided for the members of the convention, and the square of the constitution. It is stated that there will be provisions and seats in the Tramway cars and stands are being erected in various places.

Vessels of the north Atlantic squadron were anchored at the Brooklyn navy yard on Monday morning. The vessels of the squadron are the Chicago, Atlanta, Boston and Dolphin. Before proceeding to Newport they will visit Yorktown, Washington, Alexandria and Annapolis. The Chicago will be the flagship of Rear Admiral Jouett, who will be accompanied by Mrs. Jouett. Captain Chester, of the Yorktown, will be accompanied by Mrs. Chester, and Captain Wadleigh, of the Dolphin, by Mrs. Wadleigh, of Worcester. The vessels will probably sail on Wednesday.

Corn Debate.

In the senate on the 12th inst. the resolution offered by Mr. Call on the 7th inst. in relation to the corn crop was taken up. Mr. Sewell, in favor of the resolution, said that the object of the resolution was to ascertain the light of the people regarding the holding of the corn crop. He had received letters from all parts of the state of New Jersey, stating that the corn crop would be a failure.
